

Pollinator Friendly Farming

Building a Pollinator
Community

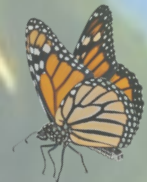

When: August 29, 2017 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 Noon

Location: Nicolet College Campus, Rhinelander WI
Fieldside Center
Room 108

- ◆ “Building a Pollinator Community”
Baerbel Ehrig, Oneida County Land & Water Conservation
- ◆ “Managing Pollinators on a Cranberry Marsh”
John Stauner, James Lake Farms
- ◆ “Monarch March”
Paula Larson, Monarch March
- ◆ “Federal Funding Options for Pollinator Habitat”
Peggy Winter, USDA-NRCS District Conservationist, Lincoln/Langlade Counties
- ◆ “Hive Alive! Sweet Science”
Todd Wilfer, Science Teacher, Northland Pines

Join us for the majestic release of locally raised and tagged Monarch Butterflies!
Mother Nature Permitting

Everyone is Welcome!

Free Attendance - RSVP is Encouraged & Appreciated
Continuing Education Credits Available

Made possible through a grant provided by:

For more information and directions,
contact: Oneida County LWCD
715-369-7835 - www.oclw.org

